

Police Blotter March 14th Through March 21st, 2025.

3/15

Alarm- Police were dispatched to the area of 2nd and Central for a burglar alarm activation. Officers arrived and checked the building. No signs of forced entry were observed. Audible alarm was sounding upon arrival. The building was found to be secure, and it was determined that the alarm was set off in error.

Community Policing- A male came into police headquarters looking for assistance with directions to their destination. Officers arrived and spoke to the male and were able to provide him with help to get to where he was going.

3/16

Open Door- While on patrol in the area of L Street and Ocean Avenue Officers observed an open door to a business that is currently closed for the season. Officers investigated the situation, and nothing appeared to be missing or damaged. It was determined the door had opened from the high winds. Police were able to secure the door.

Motor Vehicle Accident- While on patrol in the area of Farragut and North Bayview Avenues Officers observed a vehicle in the shoulder with its hazard lights flashing, damage to the front end, and the passengers' changing seats. When the Officers went around the block to get behind the vehicle they had began moving again. A motor vehicle stop was initiated, and Police began to investigate. A knocked down road sign had been located nearby on the causeway inbound. Police had talked to the occupants to get their side of the story. It was also observed that the vehicle was overloaded with too many passengers. It was determined a male driver was operating and lost control jumping the curb leaving the roadway on the causeway inbound causing significant front-end damage to their vehicle. The male driver was issued multiple summons including failure to report an accident, leaving the scene of an accident, too many passengers, and careless driving. The vehicle was not safe to drive and was towed from the scene.

3/18

Verbal Argument- Police were dispatched to the area of Decatur and Ocean Avenue for a report of two males arguing. Officers arrived and spoke to the individuals separately. The caller was a tenant, and the other party was a contractor sent by the homeowner. The tenant was upset regarding the arrangements made by the homeowner and was arguing with the contractor about it. Police were able to mediate the situation, and the individuals went their separate ways.

First Aid- Police and Tri-Boro First Aid responded to help a victim experiencing abdominal pain. Officers and EMS arrived and assessed the patient at the scene. They were later transported to Community Medical Center for treatment.

3/20

Fire Alarm- Police and the Seaside Park Volunteer Fire Company responded to the area of I Street and Central Avenue for a fire alarm activation. Officers arrived and checked the building; no smoke or active fire was observed. The fire department arrived and checked the building with their heat sensing equipment. The fire department deemed the building to be safe and that the alarm was set off by a malfunctioning detector.