Alarm- Police were dispatched to the area of 10th and Ocean for a burglar alarm activation. Officers arrived and checked the perimeter of the residence and did not observe any signs of forced entry. Doors and windows were found to be secure. It was determined that the alarm was set off in error.

Disturbance- A caller reached out to police for an incident that occurred while the caller was working as a ride share driver. The incident happened a few hours before it was reported. The caller stated he picked up a male and female in the area of M Street and Ocean. The couple attempted to bring a dog along for the ride and the driver said it was against the ride share company policy to bring an animal. The male initially offered the driver extra cash to drive the dog as well, then began to get upset. The driver stated both subjects appeared to be intoxicated. The male began grabbing the driver's shirt sleeve and poking him in the shoulder as he was yelling at him. The driver asked them to get out of the vehicle, and he would not be completing their ride. The subjects did exit his vehicle, and the driver left the area. The driver stated he has this incident on his dash cam and would be forwarding it to police. At this time, he just wanted this incident documented.
